

7 FUNCTIONAL AREAS

The OIT is responsible for university-wide technology planning and strategic and tactical deployment of the academic and administrative operations, services and resources in support of the university mission and its central and distributed technology requirements. In order to fulfill this mission, the organization is divided into seven functional areas.

GOVERNANCE POLICY AND PLANNING

- External Partnerships (e.g. CENIC)
- Facilitate Governance Process
- IT Policy Development and Implementation
- Campuswide IT assessments, planning and budget
- Events
- Campuswide programmatic support (Educause, Gartner, consultants)

ACADEMIC TECHNOLOGY SERVICES

- IDRE/OIT Partnership (including Grant Development)
- Cyberinfrastructure for High Performance Computing, (Grid, Cluster Hosting, Consulting)
- Cyberinfrastructure for Humanities, Arts, Architecture and Social Sciences (3D Visualization, Modeling, GIS, Statistical Consulting)
- Research Data Center Management (IDRE DC, MS DC)
- CCLE Common Collaborative Learning Environment
- Disabilities and Computing Program

CAMPUSWIDE ACADEMIC APPLICATIONS

- Dossier Action Tracking System
- AtmySenate System
- Campus Collaboration & Workflow Systems (e.g. SMG & MSP, Review/Search Slate, Endowed Chair) Applications
- Public Systems (e.g. iTunes U)

ARCHITECTURE AND PRACTICE

- Program Management (IamUCLA, CDW, IWE)
- Software Central
- UTIPP
- Architectural Design (Process Improvements, Service Oriented Architecture, Virtualization)

SECURITY POLICY AND COMPLIANCE PRACTICE

- Incident Response
- Campus Vulnerability Scanning
- Compliance Measurement and Reporting to the Oversight Committee on Audit and Controls (eAccess, Personal Information, Minimum Network Connectivity Standards, Preservation, SB1386/AB1298, etc.)
- Security Policy and Practice Program Management

IT AND COMMUNICATIONS INFRASTRUCTURE PLANNING

- TIER
- Murphy Hall Integration
- Campus Data Center Planning (including DR and DC consolidation)
- Campus Network Architecture
- Enterprise Messaging

ADMINISTRATION AND OPERATIONS

- Financials
- HR
- Administrative Support
- Operational Expenses (Facilities, Equipment, Telecom, Supplies etc.)
- Communications
- Desktop & Web Support